

Whereas TRIO programs have a record of success in providing students information about college, motivating them to attend college, and enabling them to succeed in college;

Whereas the TRIO programs in the last two decades have produced hundreds of thousands of educational success stories, including two Rhodes Scholars and the first Hispanic astronaut;

Whereas, absent action by the Congress, the Gramm-Rudman-Hollings legislation will eliminate 38,500 students from the TRIO programs in fiscal year 1986, and an additional 123,400 students in fiscal year 1987; and

Whereas, absent action by the Congress, over 300 colleges and universities will lose TRIO programs as a result of the Gramm-Rudman-Hollings legislation by fiscal year 1987: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That February 28, 1986, be declared "National TRIO Day", a day on which the Nation is asked to turn its attention to the needs of disadvantaged young people and adults aspiring to improve their lives, to the investment necessary if they are to become contributing citizens of this country, and to the talent which will be wasted if that investment is not made.

Agreed to March 21, 1986.
